

Linkterpreting

Plataforma de recursos para la interpretación de enlace

linkterpreting.uvigo.es

NUMERIC CONTEXTUALIZATION

Exercise 3

In the following exercise, try to sight-translate the following sentences by rounding the numeric expressions:

- Each year about 200,456 people die in car accidents in our state.
- There are more than 6,872 different species of animals in the jungle.
- There are 433 deaths due to cancer per 100,000 people every year in the Netherlands.
- The tallest mountain in the world, Mount Everest, is 8,848 metres tall.
- The population of China is 1,338,299,512.
- The average number of college graduates per year is 1,750,000.
- There are about 775,000 male college students and about 1,575,000 female college students who enrol in college per year.
- Every day around 265 people are born and about 115 people die.
- Only 1% of the earth's population has a genius IQ.
- In 1492 Columbus sailed the ocean blue.
- 231 people attended Melissa's wedding yesterday.
- There were 2,689 people on our cruise ship to the Bahamas.
- The population of Spain is 47,190,493.
- My mom spent 321 Euros at the supermarket yesterday.

Linkterpreting

Plataforma de recursos para la interpretación de enlace

linkterpreting.uvigo.es

- 36.3% of the population in Austria smokes.
- My apartment is 116 square metres.
- There are 2,324 students that attend the school that I teach at.
- There are approximately 2,766,360 abortions each year in Russia.
- The Franco-Spanish war lasted from the year 1635 to the year 1659.
- My neighbour has 12 children.
- Sara's family has 6 cats, 12 dogs, 3 rabbits and 24 birds.
- The Eiffel tower was built on January 28, 1887.
- Today it was 41 degrees in Madrid.
- The United States has 12,804 McDonald's restaurants, while Spain has only 276.
- The country with the highest life expectancy is Monaco, with 89.73 years.

Bibliography:

Nationmaster.com. <<http://www.nationmaster.com/cat/foo-food/>>